WHO WE ARE

We are a passionate and experienced team which forms part of the private VET School Mediterráneo Culinary Center in Valencia, Spain.

WE DEAL WITH ERASMUS+ SPECIALIZED training and mobility projects in both students and adults education.

Our main aim is to host students and professionals coming from other countries and organize their whole stay in Valencia.

THE KA1, PON & POR INTERNSHIPS ARE NOT ONLY FOR CHEFS

waiters, tourism, food and beverage industry, hospitality and catering staff but also for retail, IT services, hairdressers, make up and beauty, physiotherapy, health, nursing, mechanics, electricity, electronics, environment, plumbing, trade, commerce, transports, logistics, agriculture, administration, arts, automotive industry, education, social services and for other vocational training schools.

WE ARE CURRENTLY PARTNERS OF EUROPEAN KA2 RESEARCH PROJECTS

where we give our contribution in creating new didactic units and new types of knowledge in gastronomy, sustainable business in the hospitality sector, intercultural communication, language learning and agriVET field.

We collaborate with a large number of private companies, national corporations, organizations and NGOs in the city of Valencia that host participants.

WE ORGANISE TEACHING, TRAINING AND LEARNING ACTIVITIES WITH PERSONALIZED MONITORING

VALENCIA

THE PLACE TO BE

Each course, more than 10.000 foreign students choose Valencia as their training centers and universities.

Being the third largest city in Spain, our Mediterranean climate allows you to enjoy its 25 kilometers of coast for many months.

Valencia is always found among the top 5 of the best European cities because it is a very easy and pleasant place to live.

The city is especially known for its impressive and modern monuments like the City of Sciences (its five futuristic buildings are a must go)

Public transport is well developed and the subway network now has 9 lines and continues to expand. Line 3 connects with the airport, located just 8 kilometers from away the center of Valencia.

Valencia is also known for its famous festivities such as Las Fallas, an unique folk festival both artistic, religious, gastronomic, musical, pyrotechnic and intergenerational.

Vibrant nightlife and cultural scene.

Paella and horchata birthplace.

HERE WE ARE LUCKY BECAUSE THE SUN IS PLUGGED IN 2.660 HOURS PER YEAR!
